

4six
modular bench

The modular bench 4six shows just what it's capable of. Its robust wood-aluminium construction combines industrial design with a captivating naturalness. In next to no time the extendable system converts from a stool to a bench with or without lumbar support. Design by beslerberti.

Many examples of 4six can be seen here:

Watch video

Article no.: C5010

Benefits:

4six moved easily because of the different sizes and models. For relocation you don't need new acquisition and save costs.

The appealing design is effected by a stylish look why 4six can be used as an eye-catcher and contribute to the modern image of your company.

The low weight makes a easy handling to allow rapid changes carried out in the room and the high versatility can be exploited.

Technical Details:

- seat in aluminum sheet (400/600/800 mm), powdered white or black
- frame multiplex birch with white or black HPL coating
- Optional: insert seat pad made of 100% felted new wool in anthracite
- planning data (OFML) available
- Design: beslerberti

Dimension in mm:

- Total height: 455
- Total width: from 400
- Total depth: 385
- Seat height: 455
- Seat width: from 400
- Seat depth: 280